Award Title: USDLA Student Achievement Award
Award Description: This award is given to a student who has exhibited leadership and creativity in using distance learning technologies.

Criteria	Strong (5)	Medium (3)	Weak (1)	Sample Artifacts
Experience with Distance Learning (20%)	The student is familiar and skilled with effective use of distance learning technologies.	The student is somewhat familiar with using distance learning technologies.	The student is not skilled at using distance learning technologies.	Evidences of the student's effective use of distance learning technologies.
Innovation (15%)	The student has innovative ideas or has led creative applications of distance learning.	The student has led creative applications of distance learning.	The student has not led creative applications of distance learning.	Examples of student's ideas and use of creative applications of distance learning.
Creativity (35%)	The student has created a high quality project, presentation, or innovation that impacts distance learning.	The student has created a project, presentation, or innovation that is somewhat relevant to distance learning.	The student has not created a project, presentation, or innovation that impacts distance learning.	Evidences of the project, presentation, or innovation and how it has impacted distance learning.
Collaboration (20%)	The student collaborates with others using distance learning technologies.	The student occasionally collaborates with others using distance learning technologies.	The student seldom collaborates with others using distance learning technologies.	Evidence of student collaboration with others using distance learning technologies.
Letters of recommendati	The nomination includes two	The nomination includes one letter	The nomination does not include	Letters of recommendation on (10%)	letters of recommendations from inside and outside their school.	of recommendation.	letters of recommendation.	from inside and outside their school.